

OECS 2017

International Conference on Optics of Excitons in Confined Systems

10–15 September 2017
University of Bath, Bath, UK

<http://oeCS2017.iopconfs.org>

OECS 2017 follows a series of very successful past meetings, which occur approximately every two years since it first started in 1987 in Rome (Italy). Afterwards the conference was held at Naxos (Sicily, Italy, 1991), Montpellier (France, 1993), Cortona (Italy, 1995), Göttingen (Germany, 1997), Ascona (Switzerland, 1999), Montpellier (France, 2001), Lecce (Italy, 2003), Southampton (UK, 2005), Patti (Sicily, Italy, 2007), Madrid (Spain, 2009), Paris (France, 2011), Rome (Italy, 2013) and Jerusalem (Israel, 2015).

It brings together internationally leading scientists and many young researchers collaborating in a broad range of scientific topics related to optics of excitons in confined systems. The main goal of this conference is to discuss in-depth new important results, ideas and future directions in the existing as well as in the emerging areas of research.

To ensure an exciting conference program with the latest results, a considerable portion of the invited talks will be chosen from the submitted abstracts.
